Hooper, a truck fireman in the fire department, all growing out of a street car altercation about ten days ago were nolle prossed and formally abandoned in the police court today after a vigorous contest between counsel.

DIED OF CONSUMPTION.

Mrs. C. F. Lee of the Woodville section died this morning of consumption. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

DRUMMER HURT

Mr. C. H. Bradley Badly Injured in a Runaway in the Country.

The Horse Threw Him and the Driver out and Hurt Both of Them.

Mr. C. H. Bradley, of Murray, Ky., who travels for the Noble, Overby Co., and Will Moss, of the city, who was driving a team for the drummer on one of his trips day before yesterday, had a narrow escape from being killed in a runaway.

They had been to Loretteville and started for Lowes, Graves county, when some of the harness broke, and one of the horses began kicking. After kicking the dashboard off, the animals ran away and turned the wagon upside down. Both men were thrown violently out, and badly hurt.

Mr. Bradley was the worse injured, having a knee cap dislocated, and several bones fractured. Mr. Moss had several ribs fractured, one hand disabled and a shoulder badly hurt.

Mr. Bradley arrived in the city last evening and left for his home in Murray to remain until he sufficiently recovered to resume his trips. Mr. Moss is also at home but it will be several days before he is able to use his left hand.

ORDER RESCINDED.

NO RECONCENTRATION CAMPS TO BE ESTABLISHED IN PHILIPPINES.

Washington, May 7—Gen. Chaffee has cabled the war department that he has rescinded the order for the establishment of reconnection camps in Laguna and Batangas provinces, the only provinces in the Philippines where the system had been practiced.

These provinces lie on the south shores of Laguna de Bay and are about forty miles distant from Manila.

WRECKED ENGINES BROUGHT IN.

Both engines wrecked at Big Clifftie several days ago have been brought to the city for repairs. The first engine was brought in Saturday night and the other this morning. The boilers are stripped and the heads torn to pieces. It will require several thousand dollars to repair the machines. Both are big freight and the finest class used on the Louisville and Memphis divisions.

NONE OF THOSE WHO HAVE SPENT MONEY HAVE FOUND THEIR DEAD.

No More Bodies Found Yesterday at the Wreck—I N Hook Has a Barge There.

There have been no bodies found below the wreck of the Pittsburg since the trunk of the woman caught by a fisherman day before yesterday.

The remains were yesterday buried on the river bank, and there was nothing by which they might be identified.

It is a peculiar thing that those who have been most anxious in the search for the dead have been unable to find any of their lost ones. The relatives of Messrs. Hunter and Magill of Tideoute, Pa., have spent nearly $2,000, it is understood, and no trace of the dead was found.

Others have also spent large sums, but to no purpose. It is a coincidence that none of those who have been spending money for the expenses of the searching expedition have found the bodies they sought, while nearly all the others have been found.

Sunday it is understood a number of enterprising fakirs had gambling devices near the wreck, within stones' throw of the graves of fifteen or more of the unknown dead and the farmers and others of sporting inclinations were enabled to gamble all day if they desired.

The L. N. Fleet has been chartered to do the work at the Pittsburg wreck, and is now there in command of Captain Douglas Jones. Captain Morgan, who bought the wreck, has a barge there to which to load the machinery and boilers, and the work of tearing away the wreck will probably begin today.

METHODIST MEETIN

Many Delegates at the Fourteenth Conference in Dallas Texas.

A Proposition to Create the Order of Deaconesses in the Church to Come up for Discussion.

ONE OR MORE BISHOPS TO BE ELECTED

Dallas, Tex., May 7.—The fourteenth general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, convened in Dallas today. The opening exercises were conducted by Bishop Wilson of Baltimore. The roll call showed an attendance of 262 delegates representing 47 annual conferences and missions with an aggregate membership exceeding 1,500,000. Besides those delegates there were present the 11 bishops of the church and a number of prominent delegates from foreign lands, including Mexico, Brazil, China and Japan. The conference is expected to remain in session a month or longer.

Besides attending to routine business connected with the publishing and other interests of the church there are several important matters of special interest to come before the conference. Foremost among these questions is the proposition to create the Order of Deaconesses in the church. The order has proved a success in the Methodist Episcopal church and is likely to be established by the conference. A matter that is expected to provoke lively discussion is the settlement of the publishing house war claim. In 1862 the publishing house at Nashville was taken possession of by federal authorities and used for military purposes until the close of the war. For the damage done congress awarded the church $300,000. It has been asserted that this money was obtained by fraud and misrepresentation by the agent of the church who piloted the matter through congress and in view of these assertions the proposition has been made that the money should be returned by the church. A majority insists, however, that as the claim was just and proper the church should not be made to suffer by the act of an individual and that consequently the money should not be returned. Which ever way the matter is decided the debate is certain to be an interesting one.

It is believed that at least two and probably more bishops will be elected at the present conference. A number of names are mentioned and all represent men of scholarship, piety, ministerial ability and, in the general opinion of the church, are most prominent. The name most heard in this connection is that of Rev. E. E. Hoge, D.D., of Nashville, editor of the Christian Advocate. Others whose names are mentioned in connection with the honor are the Rev. Gross Alexander, D.D., of the Louisville conference, the Rev. John J. Tigert, editor of the Methodist Review; the Rev. James Atkins, D.D., of South Carolina; the Rev. P. H. Whisner, D.D., of the Baltimore conference; the Rev. Collins Denny, D.D., of Vanderbilt university; the Rev. J. D. Hammond, D.D., of the North Georgia conference; the Rev. W. E. Vaughan, D.D., of the Pacific conference, and the Rev. J. T. Sawyer, D.D., of the Louisiana conference.

FOR GOOD GOVERNMENT

Municipal League is in Session at Boston Today.

The Franchise Question Will be Thoroughly Discussed at the Convention.

Boston, Mass., May 7.—The eighth annual meeting of the National Municipal League and the tenth national conference for good city government opened in this city today. Over 200 delegates were present, including city officials and municipal authorities from all over the country. The opening session was occupied with addresses of welcome and responses and work of a routine nature. The real business of the conference begins this evening with the annual address of President James C. Carter of New York. The sessions are to continue through tomorrow and Friday.

Among the features of the program is a discussion of the franchise question. Those contributing papers are E. H. Clement of Boston, George C. Sikes, secretary of the Chicago street railway commission, Charles Richardson, vice president of the Philadelphia Municipal League and Superintendent E. F. Bemis of the Cleveland water works.

The subject of uniform municipal accounting and statistics will form the topic of one whole session's discussion. The Friday session will be held at Harvard University. In the morning the Pittsburgh political overturn will be discussed by George W. Guthrie of that city, who was chairman of the citizens' committee. The New York situation will be discussed by Dr. Albert Shaw, editor of the Review of Reviews. Former District Attorney Philbin of New York will present a paper on a "Non-Partisan Administration," and Prof. J. H. Beale of Harvard will close the meeting with a paper on "Character Legislation in New England."

G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT.

VETERANS HAD A LONG PROCESSION IN OHIO TODAY.

Lancaster, O., May 7.—This was the big day of the state G. A. R. encampment. For several hours this afternoon the hundreds of veterans marched in procession amid the cheers of crowds that lined Main, Columbus, Broad and other streets comprising the route. In view of the age and infirmities of many of the veterans the line of march was made to exceed scarcely a mile, but even this proved too long for some of the marchers and they dropped out before the end was reached. Besides the veterans the procession included several companies of state militia, Sons of Veterans, and 600 lads from the Boys' Industrial School. The route of the parade was profusely decorated with the Stars and Stripes and pictures of Sherman, Grant and other leaders. Among the men of note who reviewed the parade were Governor Nash and Commander-in-Chief Torrance, both of whom are to address the annual encampment in the city hall auditorium this evening.

THE SCHOOL BOARD

$10,000 in Improvements on School Buildings Was Authorized.

Trustee Terrell Resigns After 15 Years of Service—May 16th Carnival Day for Children.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE MEETING

The school board held an interesting and important meeting last night in their new quarters at the Washington building. Vice President Bauer presided in the absence of President Leake who was ill.

Supt. Hatfield presented his report. He said that he did not think the board would have to put up a four room school in Mechanicburg as he had suggested at the beginning of the year, as he saw a way by which the move might be postponed until next year, at the least. The report was received and filed.

Trustee Gleaves, of the finance committee, presented a list of regular bills against the board, $3,598.85 in salaries and the $1,258.62 overpaid the board by a mistake in percentage in the payment of the board's part of the taxes, which were allowed.

The treasurer's report showing $9,197.45 was received and filed. The report of the census takers showing 1,524 pupils in the First; 624 Second, 418 Third, 602 fourth, 798 Fifth and 1752 in the Sixth wards, was received and filed.

Chairman Weille of the building committee presented a report recommending the following appropriations for improvements to the buildings:

For installing heating plant in the Washington building $4,000.

For installing heating plant in the Jefferson building $2,000.

For sanitary closets Lee and Jefferson buildings $1,500.

For repairs on building and putting yards in good condition $1,500.

Painting $750.

Chairman Weille made a speech and was instructed to advertise for bids and have the work done at a cost not exceeding $9,500.

The report of Chairman Winstead, of the district school committee, to the effect that the Kentucky had been secured for both the Eighth and Eleventh grade commencements was received and filed.

The resignation of Mr. R. G. Terrell, one of the oldest members of the board, was presented by Secretary Sutherland. The resignation, he stated, was necessitated by business, and a committee was appointed to draft resolutions of regret in losing such a valuable member of the board. Mr. Terrell had been a member of the board of education for the past 15 years.

May 16 was set for children's day at the carnival.

It was then moved and the motion carried that all applicants for teachers' certificates be charged $1 entrance fee before they can take the examinations as the teachers and other examiners are forced to grade the papers and assist in the examination and that their services should be paid for. This was considered the best way to provide for the payment.

The board adjourned.

MEXICAN CENTRAL AFFAIRS

Boston, Mass., May 7.—Stockholders of the Mexican Central railway company are holding their annual meeting here today. The most important matter up for consideration is the re-adjustment plan, covering the general mortgage equivalent bonds and first and second incomes. Leading interests in the company express the belief that the plan will successfully mature, and that the value of Mexican Central stock will double in two years.

THE SECOND ANNUAL CONVENTION MEETING AT CHARLESTON.

Charleston, S. C., May 7.—Representative bankers and business men from all parts of the state filled the assembly room of the St. John's hotel today when the second annual convention of the South Carolina Bankers' Association was called to order by the president, W. A. Law, of Spartanburg. The visitors were welcomed by Mayor Smyth, to whose address response for the visitors was made by W. A. Reddy of Rock Hill. After receiving officers' reports and appointing the usual committees the convention entered on the program of papers and addresses which is one of the most interesting ever prepared for a convention of the kind in this part of the country. While the business sessions are to be full of interest and importance they are not allowed to interfere with the elaborate program of entertainment provided for the two days' stay in the city. This evening the visitors are to be the guests of the exposition and tomorrow afternoon there is to be a river excursion and other enjoyable features.

TEACHERS OF DRAWING.

NINTH ANNUAL MEETING IN SESSION IN MINNESOTA.

Minneapolis, Minn., May 7.—The Western Drawing Teachers' Association began its ninth annual meeting in Minneapolis today with the largest attendance in its history. Teachers from all parts of the country filled Plymouth church this morning when the gathering was called to order. The visitors were greeted by Dr. Thomas F. Quinby, president of the board of education, and Dr. Charles M. Jordan, superintendent of schools. The annual address of the president was delivered by Mrs. Jean McW. Mellor, of Chicago. The members then listened to an interesting address on "Clay Modelling in the Public Schools" by Miss Lillian S. Oushman of the University of Chicago. No session was held this afternoon, the visitors devoting the time to an inspection of the elaborate exhibit of drawing, manual training, and industrial work in the Central High school. This evening the members of the association are to listen to a lecture by Alfred Vance Churchill of Columbian University.

VISITING IN WALES

THE PRINCE TO BE INSTALLED AS CHANCELLOR.

London, May 7.—The Prince and Princess of Wales have gone to North Wales for a week's visit. Until Monday they are to be the guests of Mr. Ascheton-Smith at Vaenol park. Friday the prince will be installed as Chancellor of the University of Wales and the occasion will be marked by interesting ceremonies. Next week his royal highness is to preside at the opening of the electric railway to the summit of the Great Orme and later he will open the Alexandra Hospital at Rhyl, in which the king the king and queen have taken great interest for many years. At Rhyl, it is interesting to note, their royal highnesses will be within sight of the ruined Castle of Rhuddlan, where, according to tradition, the first Prince of Wales was presented to the Welsh chieftains by King Edward II. as their future prince.

MARRIED IN NASHVILLE.

OAPT. TYNER BROUGHT HIS BRIDE TO PADUCAH THIS MORNING.

Captain James Tyner surprised his many friends when he arrived on his boat, the Butteroff, this morning with a wife. The genial captain stole a march on his friends last Saturday by marrying Mrs. Georgia Doubleday, of Cheaphill, Tenn., at Nashville.

Mrs. Tyner is a handsome, popular lady, and the captain is to be congratulated on winning her.

JSS SKIN DISEASES

The skin is provided with millions of little pores and glands invisible to the natural eye, yet through these tiny outlets the larger part of the deadly matter that daily collects in the body is carried off. But nature never intended that poisons of an irritating or acid character should be eliminated through the skin, the Liver and Kidneys being their natural outlets, and it is when these important organs fail to perform their functions that these acid poisons are absorbed into the blood and find their way to the surface of the body through the pores and glands of the skin, producing intense itching and burning, inflammation and swelling, and eruptions of every conceivable size, shape and character.

Skin Diseases differ greatly in their general characteristics and degrees of intensity. Red and angry looking spots break out upon some part of the body with a mass of small pustules or blisters, from which is discharged a clear or straw colored fluid, which dries and flakes off in bran-like particles and scales, or forms into hard and painful sores and scabs. The skin often hardens and dries, cracks and bleeds from the effects of the fiery acids, Ottumwa, Iowa, April 10, 1901.

In 1883 I broke out with Eczema on my head, legs and arms. The Doctors treated me for about two years without giving relief. I next tried various ointments, soaps and washes, but these did me no good. I finally quit taking medicine, as the physician said the disease had become chronic and incurable. Having suffered this tormenting malady for about 10 years, I determined to make another effort to get rid of it and began S. S. S. in July, 1900, and continued it until November, when I discovered, to my surprise and joy, that not a spot could be found on my body, which before had been almost covered with the eruptions.

It has now been nearly a year since the disease disappeared, but not a sign of it has ever returned, and I am satisfied the cure is permanent.

F. C. NORFOLK, 1017 Hackberry Street.

You in spite of soaps, washes or powders. There is no hope of getting rid of a skin disease except through the purification of the depreciated blood and neutralizing and filtering out of the circulation all poisonous substances and acids.

The purifying and tonic properties of S. S. S. soon manifest their influence in skin afflictions; the debilitated system is invigorated and toned up, and the gradual disappearance of the eruptions show that the polluted blood is being brought back to its natural purity and strength. Old chronic skin disorders, which have resisted all the ordinary methods of treatment, readily yield to the curative powers of S. S. S., and there is no reason why the long time sufferer should feel resigned to his fate under the mistaken idea that some skin diseases are incurable, for S. S. S. has cured and is still curing cases perhaps far more desperate than yours. S. S. S. is a purely vegetable remedy, containing no Potash, Arsenic or any of the poisonous drugs which constitute the basis of so many so-called skin cures. Our Medical Department has been of the greatest assistance to thousands seeking relief from blood and skin troubles. Write us fully about your case, and our physicians will help you, for which no charge whatever is made. Our illustrated Book on Skin Diseases will be sent free to all who write for it.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC COMPANY, ATLANTA, GA.

Mrs. Lillian M. LaCamp,

Secretary and Treasurer of the Kansas City Lodge,

Order of the Eastern Star.

FEW women get sufficient rest. The care of young children, the duties of their homes and in many cases the demands made upon them by modern society keep them awake hours after they should be in bed. This constant straining of the nerves is killing hundreds of thousands of women. One of the first results is that the delicate menstrual function is upset. This terrible drain is sapping their lives—wearing away the nerve tissue that sleep cannot replace.

Mrs. Lillian M. LaCamp, No. 215 East Fourteenth Street, Kansas City, Mo., is the secretary and treasurer of the Kansas City Lodge of the Order of Eastern Star, which is composed of the wives and daughters of Masons. Her position is one of great trust, for in her keeping are the secrets of the order and the money which the members pay for its support. Her word carries great weight with everyone who knows her, in writing this testimonial she is in line with her daily duties—helping those who are in need. When she can tell them of a great remedy like Wine of Cardui, who have a better claim on her time and consideration than the hundreds of thousands of her suffering sisters? Mrs. LaCamp says this for Wine of Cardui:

"McElree's Wine of Cardui is certainly a boon to worn out and tired women. I have never known a medicine that would so quickly and permanently restore a woman suffering with the many diseases peculiar to her sex. I have tried it myself and know whereof I speak and I have recommended it to dozens of mothers, suffering with scanty, profuse and painful menstruation, kidney or liver trouble, and I have yet to know of a case which was not greatly improved by its use. Because of this I am pleased to endorse it, letting assured that it will not disappoint any."

Mrs. LaCamp is positive that Wine of Cardui will give relief to weak and suffering women and she does not hesitate to say so in strong terms of commendation. And she hopes that thousands of women will take Wine of Cardui because she has brought it to their attention today. It is a fact that a woman cannot attend to the exacting duties imposed on her without taking some medicine to regulate the menstrual periods. Irregularities of the measles grow worse unless properly treated. The flow may become scanty or profuse. In the former case the excretory system is poisoned by the refuse which cannot escape. Profuse menses or flooding drain the body of its strength.

Wine of Cardui when taken by a woman whose health is injured by the strain of too much work, will strengthen her for her tasks. It will stop the weakening discharges which waste the vitality and undermine the constitution. This is an important message to every suffering woman. It shows how she can secure relief in the privacy of her home.

If advice is needed for your case write a letter to the Ladies' Advisory Department, The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., and advice will be given you free of charge.

THE DOCTORS WELCOME.

The doctor is among the most indispensable of our citizens. He is loved and respected in every community, and while you may not need him often, he is like the fire-arm in Texas—"When you do need him, you need him d-d bad." Socially and professionally the doctors have our profoundest admiration and respect, and it is with unusual pleasure that today we extend to them a hearty welcome to Paducah, the pride of the Purchase. It is hoped that they will consider the city theirs while they are here, and take it with them when they go, if they can't manage to stay with us. We trust the three days' stay of the physicians among us will be days of pleasure as well as profit, and fully expect that those who insist on going away when the meeting is over will return to us later.

DEMOCRACY AND TRUSTS.

The Democratic papers continue to berate the Republican party for the latter's alleged friendliness to trusts. The reason of this is that the Republicans do not seek to impair or destroy commercial prosperity by making war on everything the Democratic papers are disposed to call "trusts." The Democrats have reached a stage when they call every big combination of capital a trust. They do it because they know it is not a trust, and there is no way to do away with it. If the ignorant are made to believe such things are trusts, however, and the party in power is not doing anything to break them up, it may mean votes for the Democratic party. Their plan is very simple. They call something a "trust" and begin upbraiding the Republicans for not annihilating it. The Republicans do not annihilate it because it is not a trust, and the Democrats then exultantly declare that the Republicans are protecting trusts. Only the other day one of the free-silver-or-not Goebel organists remarked that the Democratic party "is the enemy of all trusts and the enemy of high tariff." Yes, very likely. The people of Kentucky know better than that. They know of the trips to New York of certain prominent Kentucky Democrats, who hit the Bell Telephone corporation for $10,000 twice what we know of. What was this little "tonch" for? And how many more were there? Why should the Bell Telephone company give the Democratic party in Kentucky—the boastful foe of prosperity and capital—$10,000 a year? What was it for, if not because the Democratic party is a friend of the trusts—provided, of course, that the trusts come forth with the filthy incr. Those little Democratic excursions into New York, however, are not forgotten by the people of Kentucky, and there is a great deal more that is yet to be told about them. It would be as interesting to know where the campaign funds of the Democratic party in Kentucky came from as where they went to.

When the Democratic papers in Kentucky have "a henkerin'" to jump on the Republican party for its alleged friendliness to trusts, they should remember about the $10,000 donation of the Bell Telephone Co. to the Kentucky Democratic campaign fund.

And they should also remember the reports about certain Democratic state officials acting as lobbyists for powerful corporations at the recent session of the legislature.

It is with genuine regret that the people of Paducah learn of the resignation of Mr. R. G. Terrell, a member of the board of education for fifteen years. Mr. Terrell was elected by the people, who appreciated his qualifications, many years ago, and has since been re-elected regularly without asking for endorsement, and until a year ago was treasurer of the board. He has the reputation of knowing more about the affairs of the schools than any other man in Paducah, and had always been a conservative, consistent member of the board. His advice was always something the board appreciated and heeded, and whenever he made a statement it was accepted as unquestionably as the records themselves. In the retirement of Trustee Terrell the board of education loses one of its pillars, if not its mainstay, and it is the general opinion, without regard to politics, that it will be a long time before such another trustee is found. If expressions heard on all sides are indicative of anything, Mr. Terrell has the gratitude of the best people of Paducah for his excellent and loyal service in advancing the schools of Paducah for the past fifteen years.

In connection with the resignation of Trustee Terrell, it is said that the fact that the board of education is now dominated by a clique is responsible for his retirement. Some of the new members, according to reports, are determined to run things as they think is best, whether the wiser heads approve or not. They take up advice and sit down on anything the older members suggest. They know more than those members who have solved the problems of school promotion for years, and being in the majority, they have seized the bit in their teeth and are going their own pace. If it is true that Trustee Terrell resigned because he had lost his influence with the board, it is a state of affairs that does not augur well for the schools. The wiser counsel should always prevail in a public body, and when public officers are actuated by a spirit that prompts them to fight anything some one else recommends, simply because he is not in with the gang, the chances for satisfactory service on the school board or anywhere else are greatly reduced, to say the least.

It is the present system of street sprinkling, such as it is, that provokes a vast feeder to the revenues of the water company, a private corporation. Residouts have to pay about $6 a year simply for the water they use to sprinkle the street, and they have to buy hose and do it themselves. A system of street sprinkling to be paid for by assessment would be done by contract, and the contractor would have to secure the water. He could pump it out of the river, or, if he preferred, get it from the water company. That would be a matter for him to decide, as he would have to pay the bills. The assessment for sprinkling, it appears, should properly fall on the property owner, just as the insurance and taxes do. His remedy is in increasing the rent in proportion, just as sewerage connections and other improvements result in a raise in the rent. The property owner is assessed by the city for sprinkling in front of his property, and the property holder is assessed by the owner for the increased expense.

A citizen of Metropolis, Ill., who had tired of worrying along with the unsanitary condition of things that resulted from the indifference of members of the town council, filed a suit for damages not long ago. It went to trial Saturday, and the citizen obtained a judgment for $50 damages. If every citizen in a place thus did his duty towards compelling municipal authorities to discharge their official duties in the proper manner, there would be more comfort, health and happiness in a community.

The board of education should go slow. School improvements are greatly needed, but if the board will not have money enough to pay for them, it cannot legally authorize the beginning of the work. The levy this year is less than it was last, and last year it was not more than enough. It is said that if the board spends $9,500 for improvements, it cannot pay for them unless it curtails other expenses. That it can entail any other expenses is doubted.

The police chiefs are to discuss the momentous question of what to do with the anarchist at the national meeting in Louisville. They had better first discuss some sensible method of catching them.

Louisville and Nashville stock and fresh beef seem to be boon companions.

A GREAT BUSINESS LESSON.

Out of the death of Gerhard Mennen comes a lesson in advertising. It is peculiarly American, because nowhere in the world has advertising become so necessary to the concern that wants to prosper as in the United States.

They are just waking up to the value of printers' ink in England, and they haven't caught the motion yet. The English prejudice against publicity is hard to overcome.

Mr. Mennen made a powder. It is more than likely that your barber has sprinkled your face with it times without number, and millions of babies have stopped crying because Mr. Mennen was in business.

It is one thing to manufacture a worthy article or sell good goods. It is another to awaken public interest in and appreciation of them, and many a man who knew how to do the one thing failed because of his ignorance of the other.

Mr. Mennen was of the opinion that advertising would make a market for his goods, and so he bought a great deal of printers' ink. He didn't have much money at the start, but pluck enough to accomplish almost anything.

He was before the people so often and so universally that his persistence became an advertisement in itself. Mennen's face, without a word of comment in a newspaper, would have been an advertisement. People naturally feel acquainted with a number of persons whose portraits are associated with American goods.

There are concerns in this country that would pay a million dollars spot cash for the popularity that belongs to any one of those faces, and they can't buy it except in the way Mennen bought it.

Mr. Mennen lived to see money rolling into his coffers; lived to enjoy much of the fruits of his labor; lived to do a great deal of good, and behind him he left a fortune of $1,500,000, and a name famous in the commercial world.

Altogether it constitutes a monument to the efficacy of American advertising.—St. Louis Chronicle, April 11.

THEY DIDN'T MEET

They are not judges or attorneys, and have no right to stop a legitimate enterprise on mere presumption.

"I have not decided what I shall do yet, but I certainly have recourse in some way to recover what I was deprived of."

The promoters of the hunt, the members of The Kentucky Athletic club, have very little to say, except that they expect to have the exhibition yet, if they have to go to the county to do it.

Some of the members of the athletic club stated that they would probably know tomorrow where the exhibition will be given.

POE'S MILITARY RECORD.

Tales of "The Raven" Served as a Private in the Army.

Edgar Allan Poe, author and poet, owing to the records of the War Department, enlisted as a private in a United States army, served nearly two years with distinction—attaining the rank of sergeant-major—and was honorably discharged. His enlistment, which took place three years after Byron's death in Greece, was a foolish freak, prompted, perhaps, by reading books of military adventure. He served under the name of E. A. Perry, his right name coming into the record only in connection with his act as a substitute. The enlistment was at Fort Independence, Boston harbor, May 26, 1827.

Poe is described by Lieutenant H. Tristwood, who enlisted him, as 22 years old, 5 feet 8 inches in height, grey eyes, brown hair, and fair complexion. He was assigned to battery II, First artillery, which was soon afterward transferred to Fort Monroe, Va. Nearly two years after entering the army Poe was advanced to the non-commissioned staff, having while at Fort Monroe shown ability that attracted attention. On April 14, 1829, he offered a substitute, and was honorably discharged, having at that time the rank of sergeant-major.

On July 1, 1830, he was admitted to the military academy at West Point, and on March 5 of the following year was dismissed by order of court martial, having grown tired of military life and purposely violated rules and regulations which he knew would cause his dismissal.

Tales of a Green Parasol

A young lady, now a resident of Milwaukee, but who at one time lived in Waukesha, met a young man whose devotion to her was one of uncommon order. Whenever he saw her on the street all thoughts of business were immediately banished from his mind, and the time never seemed to fly so quickly as when spent in the fair one's company. Unfortunately, however, he was extremely nearsighted, and could recognize the object of his adoration only when she was within close range.

Whether it was a bit of foresight on her part or not, is not known, but one summer's day this young lady purchased silk parasols of a brilliant emerald hue. The young man had cause for great rejoicing, for wherever his lady love went this vivid green radiance went with her, and many were the interviews this bit of finery brought about.

One sweltering day the young man thought he espied the signal which revealed her whereabouts. It was some three or four blocks away and he started for it on a run. He called her by name, but without avail, which only caused him to redouble his efforts. The perspiration was running down his face, when he stopped before a flaring green poster on a billboard, which he had taken for the parasol of his adored one.

Good Word for the Trades.

Hoffman Atkinson, who was vice-president of the Holland Torpedo Boat Company, and whose will was filed for probate recently, left all his estate to his widow, Sophie, and the following bequest to his descendants: "I earnestly hope that every descendant of mine, both man and woman, may be taught and acquire some one profession, trade or handicraft during adolescence, whereby to avoid the risk of begging or borrowing. No profession or trade can be degrading or low as compared with the shame of getting for nothing the fruits of others' labor."

By Arthur Sullivan Bozard.

The mural tablet to be placed in St. Paul's Cathedral, London, to the memory of Sir Arthur Sullivan is ornamented with a figure of Orpheus and his lute and beneath the inscription are a few of the opening bars of his popular melody for the hymn "Onward, Christian Soldiers."

AT LA BELLE PARK.

CLEVER PERFORMANCE THERE LAST EVENING—PROF. RECORD HURT.

The Stock company at La Belle last night in the face of opposing weather, played to a fair and appreciative audience. The company was seen to a better advantage, all of them feeling easy in their lines and did some clever work.

This can especially be said of Mr. Middleton, an old favorite in Paducah. In handling the by no means easy part of Dave Hardy, he proved himself to be all that could be desired.

Mr. Carlton as old man Rogers and Miss Grace as his wife Liddy Ann gave a good portrayal of two old characters. Miss Mandeville (Mrs. Beatty) while yet a young actress, shows marked ability. The comedy, of which there is very little in the piece, was cleverly handled by Mr. Lyall and Miss Hazelton and Mr. Harmon was all that could be wanted as the villain.

Prof. Record after his ride for life down the stairway on entering the cycle whirl had a narrow escape and a hard fall caused by the tire coming off the front wheel of his bicycle. However he will be on hand tonight ready to again make his perilous flight.

There is to be a children's matinee Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

This city, says the Chicago Record-Herald, has the honor, through the Chicago Telephone Company, of being the first in the world to provide diners with telephone while they eat. The broker, financier, merchant now eats his lunch, placidly certain that his place of business can call him up, and he talk back to it without leaving his table. Three cafes of the city are already using the system, and it promises to be installed in all popular eating places within a short time. All the dining table now needs is a stenographer and typewriter to make man absolutely happy.

DOROTHY VERNON OF HADDON HALL.

By Charles Major. Illustrated by Howard Chandler Christy. The Macmillan Co. 12mo, $1.50.

Charles Major is perhaps the most popular teller of love stories among living novelists. In Dorothy Vernon, as in his earlier novel "When Knighthood was in Flower," time and distance lose their significance under his spell. He has the rare and happy faculty which brings home to the heart the spirit of gallant times and the impulsive call of youth's springtime.

Well written from first page to last, this novel is worthy to rank as one of the best pieces of American fiction, and as literature. Mr. Major has discovered what potent implements are language and style in the creation of romance, and he has mastered their use.

All praise to him for this; it cannot fail, moreover, to add to his popularity, thus earning for his willingness to labor and improve two rewards, one material, the other artistic.

The romance is the chief concern with this author; it is the very root as well as the flower of his gift. This is a historical tale, so far as period, scene, and minor characters are concerned. Indeed, even his hero and his heroine, and the romance itself, are based upon historic fact. But we are after all over in the land of lovers, the best of realms in which to dwell in romantic fiction. Dorothy Vernon is an Elizabethan maid, but there is in her suggestion of wilful young womanhood as it reveals itself through the ages, a touch of the eternal feminine in her defiance of authority for the sake of the man she loves. She is not a historic figure, interesting on account of its distance from the women of today; she is flesh and blood of this twentieth century, all gentleness and roused fury in defense of her man; nil love and strength and fortitude under persecution and opposition, a living, loving, lovable girl, ready to risk all for the sake of "him," a living woman of today. She will appeal more powerfully, we think, to the popular imagination than did even the heroine of the earlier book, because she is depicted in more vigorous lines and stronger colors, because Mr. Major has mastered his trade.

The elopement of Dorothy Vernon with John Manners is an historic episode; Ifardon Hall belongs to this day to their descendants, the Dukes of Rutland. Queen Elizabeth visited the castle; the state chamber, where she rested overnight, is still shown to visitors in its original state. Mary Stuart, too, enters the story, to rouse the jealousy of Dorothy. In short, the lover of the accuracy of history in fiction may rest contented with the story; but he will probably care little for that once he has been caught by the spirit and freshness of the romance.

CONFEDERATE HOME MEETING

OFFICERS ELECTED BY THE DIRECTORS AT LOUISVILLE YESTERDAY.

Louisville, May 7—The trustees of the Confederate Home met here yesterday afternoon, and elected the following officers:

President—Colonel Bennett H. Young, Louisville.

Vice president—Colonel Leeland Hathaway, Winchester.

Secretary—H. P. McDonald, Louisville.

Treasurer—Colonel Fayette Llewitt, Frankfort.

Senator Coleman offered a resolution stipulating that the trustees advertise for proposals for a home on a site of not less than 90 acres. The resolution was unanimously adopted.

The following committee on rules was appointed: Messrs. Hathaway, Llewitt and Ewing.

The trustees are enthusiastic over the home, and speeches were made pledging hearty support. It is believed that there will be sharp rivalry for the site.

Preliminary to the meeting of the trustees the committee of 25, of which Colonel Young is chairman, met. The report of the treasurer showed that $15,986 has been raised. It is proposed to raise $25,000.

EXODUS FROM NORWAY

EMIGRATION TO THE UNITED STATES LARGEST FOR FORTY YEARS.

Christiania, May 7—The newspapers are printing alarmist articles on account of the recent increase in emigration from Norway to the United States. It is estimated that 30,000 Norwegians have sailed to America this year, double the number for the same period last year. Emigration has not assumed such proportions since the time of the famine, forty years ago. Extremely slack trade, heavy taxation and a poor fishing season are given as the causes of the exodus.

ARE NO WOMEN DIAMOND CUTTERS.

Said to Lack Patience, Judgment and Never Necessary.

When the man behind the desk found that his caller was a woman he was visibly annoyed.

"What does she want? A job?" he asked of the office boy. The smart attendant said he didn't know, and the visitor, being within conversational distance, volunteered the information that such was not her errand. The man looked relieved.

"I'm glad of that," he said. "We receive so many applicants for a situation from women who cannot be accommodated that I've got so I dread the swish of a petticoat."

"Don't you like women?" questioned the visitor.

"As women," was the reply, "but not as diamond cutters. If I did like them in that capacity I could easily have a banner class made up of the sex, so solicitous are they to secure admission into the firm on the lowly footing of apprentices. I don't know what has come over the women lately to make them so anxious to try their hand at this business. In other branches of the jewelry trade women have made some unqualified successes. Not one of Eve's daughters, from royalty down, I should say, that isn't an artist in the wearing of diamonds; many are well versed in the tricks of buying and selling them, while others give excellent satisfaction in polishing, setting and preparing them for the market. But when it comes to the real cutting of the stones they lack the patience, judgment and steadiness of nerve which constitute the expert's stock in trade. It would seem that diamonds have the same effect upon the woman who wishes to shape them that they do on the new engagement ring—puts them in a tremor of excitement. Hence diamond cutters are invariably men."

The proprietor picked up the dollar and laid down 85 cents. As the customer disappeared he walked around in front of the bar and said to a friend who sat there: "Casey, I'd have given me liquor shop to have known what to answer back to that man."

EVEN IRISH WIT FAILS AT TIMES.

One Instance Where an Answer Was Not forthcoming.

Repartee is like tennis. The ball is driven backward and forward from one player to the other, and the one on whose side it last strikes is the loser. It is terrible thing for an artist at repartee to find that he has no answer. The mere pretender does not care, He will answer something, to the point or not, but the artist will not debase his art with a bad answer; he merely sorrows for a good one.

There was a little Irishman who kept a liquor shop, and he was noted for always having ready ready. One day a man came in, laid a dollar bill on the bar and called for whisky. The proprietor set out the bottle and a glass, and the customer filled the glass right up to the top. "Is it a towie you'd be wantin'?" the proprietor asked, implying thereby that the customer had poured out a bath, rather than a drink.

"Look here," said the customer, pointing to the money, "there's a dollar, you can take the price of this drink out of it, and if there isn't enough, tell me how much more you want and I'll pay it, but I don't want any talk from a little Mick of a har-tender."

The proprietor picked up the dollar and laid down 85 cents. As the customer disappeared he walked around in front of the bar and said to a friend who sat there: "Casey, I'd have given me liquor shop to have known what to answer back to that man."

STILL HAVE BELIEF IN WITCHES.

Romarkaba Case of Superstition Reported from England.

Superstition is not yet dead. A few days ago a lady living in Cornwall received a letter from a woman dwelling twenty miles away in a lonely coast village, in whose house she had frequently spent some months of the summer months. The letter was not well written, but the woman can hardly be old enough to have escaped compulsory education altogether. Yet she wrote to say that there was somebody in that coast village who had been ill-wished and was in consequence likely to die. She had heard that in the town to which she had addressed her letter there was a skillful white witch who, for a consideration, would be willing to provide the sufferer with a charm which would be a sovereign cure.

She asked the lady to endeavor to discover the name and address of the benefactor. That such a letter should be written in these civilized days is not especially surprising, but the instances are not worth noting, for those who have had most experience in the study of the superstitious beliefs of the peasantry know well that for one which gets written down in this way there are generally two or three vastly more interesting which are never disclosed except in moments of extreme emotion and panic.—London Post.

When the ladies went to the dining-room Mrs. G. was there, took coffee with us gaily and finished the evening with the gentlemen as they strolled in from their cigars.

This should have prepared me for any inconsistency. But not very long afterward I could with difficulty repress a smile at the conduct of another English woman in mourning whom I met at the house of a friend. A table of bridge was being made up and the hostess asked her to join.

"Yes, dear," she replied, crossingly, "but you must put me at a mourning table."

"In other words, she would only play with persons who were in bereavement like herself."—New York Sun.

CHARITY WORKERS ON NEW BASIS.

Salaries Now Paid for Visiting the Sick and Helping the Poor.

"The newest profession for women is that of a charity worker," remarked a prominent club woman yesterday.

"You needn't laugh. There really is such a profession, and it is new, and if I were a young woman I would enter into training for it. There is not much competition as yet, and the opportunities for studying charity work are limited, but still it is now possible."

"New York has established a training school for charity workers, and it is meeting with success. The women who enter are put into active service at visiting under proper lectures upon the different phases of the leadership, and then there are courses of subjects. It is quite worth entering from a financial standpoint, also. Philadelphia is proverbially conservative, and yet we pay the young woman at the head of our organizing charities the salary of $5,000, and she can greatly supplement it by lecturing and literary work upon the subject of her profession.

"Other cities do better than this, and the time is not far distant when all charitable work will be conducted in a methodical manner by an expert, who will be well paid for her services."—Philadelphia Record.

Washington, May 7.—Nearly three and one half million dollars distributed by the secretary of the treasury yesterday was among national banks in various parts of the country. Sixty two banks are recognized as depositaries in widely different sections of the country.

They are in part as follows:

For $100,000, Third, Columbus, Ga.; Hibernia, New Orleans, La.

For $50,000, Capital, Atlanta, Ga.; Calcasieu, Lake Charles, La.; New Iberia, New Iberia, La.; First, Yazoo City, Miss.; First, Meridian, Miss.; National Bank, High Point, N. C.; City, Knoxville, Tenn.; First, Beaumont, Tex.; First, El Paso, Tex.; Dominion, Bristol, Tenn.

THE GOLD COUNTRY.RUSH OF PROSPECTORS INTO ARIZONA IS LARGE.

Phoenix, Ariz., May 7.—The rush of prospectors into the gold country north of Wickenburg is assuming large proportions. In the vicinity of the Oro Grande group, the scenes of the recent sensational finds, more than 400 claims have been located during the last ten days, and from every part of the territory gold seekers are coming in. Several finds of importance have supplemented the original strike and in several places, within a mile of the Oro Grande, ledges have been uncovered which indicate, so the prospectors say, the Wickenburg district is a possible rival of the greatest gold fields of South Africa or Alaska.

NO ONE ELIGIBLE.CITY AT PRESENT UNABLE TO FIND AN ENGINEER.

Mayor Yeiser is busy looking up the city engineer matter but as yet has not determined who is eligible to the position since Engineer Wilcox resigned. It is said that there are no engineers in Paducah who are eligible to the office as no one except Mr. Wilcox has lived here the requisite two years. Mr. L. A. Washington is eligible but is working in the south on the Gulf and Ship Island road. Mr. W. W. Lyon is also said to be eligible but is working in Alabama.

Mr. Frank Major and wife of South Bend, Ind., are in the city visiting Mr. John Lane of the I. C. They will go to Dawson shortly for his health.

EFFORT TO RAISE FUNDS FOR THE Y. M. C. A. BUILDING NOT ABANDONED.

Mr. George T. Howser of Chicago, who has been here managing the canvass for funds for the proposed Y. M. C. A. home, left at noon for Lexington to close the canvass work there.

The canvassers there lack little of having the necessary $40,000 which will bind all subscriptions. Here only $30,000 is necessary and Mr. Howser thinks he has done about all the good in his power to be done at present.

When asked if he would return he said that he did not know and could not promise.

There will be little done here in this matter during the carnival week and after all the excitement is over then the workers will begin the canvass again. The project will be dropped temporarily only and the promoters have no idea of abandoning it.

GRADING BEGINS.CONTRACTORS TO FINISH THE WORK BY OCTOBER 1.

Today the grading contractors of the Cairo branch of the I. C. began work and will rapidly push it to completion.

The tracks have been laid as far as 400 feet past Burnett street and the grading will begin from this point. It is estimated that the grading of all track work will be finished by October, a remarkably short time to build 50 miles of road.

FREAK CALF.

Hopkinsville, Ky., May 7.—There is on exhibition at a livery stable in this city a genuine freak in the animal kingdom. It is a thoroughbred Jersey heifer calf born without eyeballs and without a tail. Where a tail should be there is a tuft of long hair.

The calf is healthy and vigorous and will be exhibited as one of the attractions of the coming Elk's fair. It is now about a week old, and was purchased from a farmer in this county.

SWEEP AWAY

Fifteen Houses Went Out With Cloudburst in Oklahoma.

At Least Six Lives Lost—Train Had Thrilling Race to Escape.

Oklahoma City, Okla., May 7.—It is now known that six lives were lost in the cloudburst at Foss, on Choctaw and Oklahoma Railroad. Fifteen houses were carried away and a Choctaw passenger train had a thrilling race to escape the flood that followed.

The dead are: Mrs. Butterfield and granddaughter, Mrs. Hutchinson, Mrs. Morgan and son. Man name unknown, Man name unknown.

Foss was a town of 800 people. It was built mostly on high ground, but extended into the valley. The cloudburst struck Turkey creek some distance from Foss at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, raising the waters of that stream and the Washita river to a depth of nearly 10 feet. The flood reached Foss at 6:30 o'clock, coming with such suddenness that the people in the valley could not reach high ground. From Elk City to Foss the Choctaw railway follows Turkey creek for a distance of sixteen miles. Below Foss the creek crosses under the Choctaw tracks, and empties into the Washita, which the Choctaw crosses further east. The train crew saw the wall of water descending the creek, and began a race for the bridge across the Washita. The train hardly got into Foss in time, leaving ten minutes later, or just ten minutes before the bridge over Turkey creek was swept away. A few minutes later the bridge over the Washita was washed out. The train finally reached Weatherford, after encountering numerous bad places in the track, and was compelled to remain there because of washouts ahead.

Relief has been sent to Foss from Oklahoma City and other points.
